RAILROAD STRIKE IMPERILS COUNTRY

Big Sandy passenger trains No. 37 and 38 have been discontinued on account of the strike.

Also, 18 other trains on the C. & O. in the Huntington and Ashland districts have been out off. Others will follow.

All lines of business will be paralyzed within a few days. Food shortages will cause suffering at many places.

Another railroad strike is on, adding to the troubles of the country in these perilous days. Nothing can do more damage just now than a railroad strike. The strike is caused by the demand of shopmen for higher wages. It came almost without warning to the public. If these men are not getting enough they could get an increase by proper presentation of facts sustaining their contention. It is the use of force that the innocent public resents. The people will suffer hardships and the loss of millions every day as a result of the strike.

Embargoes have been placed upon shipments of perishable freight, live stock, etc. It is reported this morning that there will be only one train a day each way on the Big Sandy division of the C. & O., beginning with the annulment of one train Thursday evening.

With a coal famine next winter staring the world in the face the minds will be forced to close again.

Good roads and the use of trucks and automobiles is the only thing in sight that may make the public more independent of railroads. That remedy is a long way in the future for the country as a whole, but every effort should be bent in that direction.

Also, river transportation must be revived and encouraged. It would be a fine time to go after Congress for further improvement of the Big Sandy river. A few more locks and dams would reach enough coal to bring about a regular business of shipping by water. The Ashland dam in the Ohio now keeps a pool in the mouth of Big Sandy sufficient to get boats in and out at all times.

A large number of telegraph operators and railroad clerks have been thrown out of employment by the strike.

LITTLE BOY IS KILLED BY AUTO

John Hannibal Cooper, formerly of Paintsville, but now of Hillsboro, Ga., passed through Louisa Wednesday morning with the body of his little boy who was killed by an automobile on Tuesday. The little fellow was six years old. He and his sister were crossing a street when two machines from opposite directions crowded them into such close quarters that the little boy was knocked down and killed. His little sister escaped the same fate by a very close margin.

The body was buried at Paintsville. Mr. Cooper lived in Louisa a few years ago and had charge of the Singer Sewing Machine company's business. He is almost prostrated over the sad accident and his many friends deeply sympathize with him.

NOT ENOUGH FOR NURSING COURSE

Unless there are received this week the names of more persons desiring to take the free course in nursing offered to Lawrence Co., no instruction will be given.

Up to this time five names have been received from Louisa and five from Fallsburg.

The proposition was to have at least ten applications from each of four places by August 10th—Louisa, Blaine, Webbville and Fallsburg.

This is a rare opportunity and there are only three days left in which applicants may file their names with the secretary of the Lawrence County Red Cross at Louisa. It is possible that Lawrence county people will fail to take advantage of this important opportunity.

NEW CHRISTIAN CHURCH BUILDING

On Monday morning ground was broken for the new church building that is to be erected on the lot on upper Madison street donated some time ago by Mr. J. M. Mounts as a site for the building. Subscriptions have been made and work on a modern brick structure will be begun at once.

The building is expected to cost from six to seven thousand dollars. The plan is a good one and the building will be a credit to the congregation and the town. The location is a desirable one.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL.

There will be an ice cream social at the Busseyville schoolhouse Saturday night, August 9, proceeds for benefit of school.

R. L. Vinson has an option on the G. V. Meek property near the foot of the hill, on Madison-st., and will probably buy it.

VIRGIL McELDOWNNEY MARRIED.

We notice in the marriage license list in Wednesday's Courier-Journal the names of Virgil E. McElDownney, of Charleston, W. Va., and Miss Gladys B. Drescher, of Louisville. The groom is the eldest son of Rev. L. E. McElDownney, formerly of Louisa. Virgil is a medical student at Louisville.

DID NOT FILE ACCOUNT.

It is reported that L. W. Skaggs, Republican candidate for the Legislature from Lawrence and Elliott counties, did not file an expense account, as required by law, and that he is no longer a candidate. We give this only as it came to us, having no definite information as to Mr. Skaggs' intentions.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Thurman Jones, 27, to Olive Thompson, 17, of Portsmouth and Ulysses. Lee Diamond, 21, to May Young, 17, of Overda.

WM. A. MARRS BUYS HOME IN NEWPORT

W. A. Marrs, a former citizen of Louisa, has bought a home in Newport, Ky. He has been living in Cincinnati the past few years and holds a good position there with the Big Four railroad.

MRS. T. C. SONGER PASSES AWAY

The Ashland Independent gives the following full and correct account of the life and death of Mrs. Songer: Mrs. Thomas C. Songer, wife of Thomas C. Songer, general chairman of engineers of the C. & O. railroad, passed away at her home, 28th and Winchester at 5:15 p. m. Monday, August 4. In her death eastern Kentucky loses a woman well known, universally admired and beloved.

She was Mary Abigail Sullivan, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Christian M. Sullivan, and was born in Charleston, W. Va., May 26, 1861. When very young child her parents took her to Louisa, Ky., where she spent her girlhood and grew to be the gracious, beautiful young woman so happily remembered by all who knew her in early years. Her father, who died when she was but three years of age, was a prominent minister of the M. E. Church South, whose field of work covered parts of Kentucky, and extended thru West Virginia as far as the White Sulphur Springs. He was a man of deep learning, and far reaching influence. His wife, a charming and brilliant woman long survived him, passing away at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Songer in this city March 30, 1909, having spent the last sixteen years of her life with this beloved son and daughter.

The marriage of Thomas C. Songer and Mary Sullivan was consummated in Louisa, January 31, 1883. The greater part of their married life has been spent in Ashland, where their children have grown to manhood and womanhood, have received education and are all happily married and highly esteemed citizens.

For several years Mrs. Songer has been a semi-invalid, and throughout this trying portion of her life her unfailing patience, gentleness, gratitude for every comfort that could be provided her, and Christian fortitude under her physical trials, have been as a benediction to her family and friends, and will remain a monument of ineffaceable glory in the hearts of those who reverence her memory. Her husband and children have been untiring in their devoted care of her, and the ready smile which rewarded their every effort revealed the lovely nature which steadfastly refused to be discouraged.

Her association in her church life was always of the sweetest. She had been a life-long member of the M. E. Church South, and until ill health prevented active service, was in the lead with every undertaking for the advancement of God's kingdom.

Her husband survives her and three sons, Jesse and Fred Songer, who reside in Ashland, and Clifford Songer, of New York, who has been in naval service for the past ten years, and is now chief machinist aboard U. S. S. Prometheus. The only daughter is Mrs. L. E. Payne, of Ashland. There are six grand-children. One sister survives, Mrs. Kate P. Shannon, of Louisa, and one brother, W. N. Sullivan, of Frankfort. Rev. Dr. F. P. Shannon, a prominent divine of Brooklyn, now in charge of Reform church on the Heights, is a nephew of Mrs. Songer and frequently visited her.

On Wednesday night 1 p. m. the funeral service was conducted at the home, Rev. W. M. Wakefield having charge, assisted by W. L. Reid and Rev. Mr. Jenkins. The body will be taken to Louisa Wednesday evening, by train and placed in the home of Mrs. Songer's cousin, Mrs. Hannah M. Lackey, where the funeral service will be held on Thursday morning, after the arrival of the Big Sandy train from Ashland and interment will there be made where the father, mother, and two children of Mrs. Songer are resting. The people of Louisa have graciously extended to Ashland friends of the Songer family the hospitality of their homes for all who attend the funeral from this city.

Services were held at Mrs. Lackey's residence at 8:30, conducted by Rev. H. O. Chambers, of the M. E. Church South. Interment followed in Pine Hill cemetery, where rest the remains of Mrs. Songer's parents, brothers and other relatives.

BREED BETTER STOCK.

The man who lives on a farm and the man who owns land is always anxious to have better stock. He may fancy saddle horses; he may breed beef cattle; he may build a dairy herd, or he may be producing pork; but he is interested in anyone who can tell him how to improve his stock.

W. S. Anderson, of the College of Agriculture, is a livestock enthusiast of the most pronounced type. He always has things worth while to say in his talks, things which the farmer, the breeder and the dairy man can take home with them.

WAR BROUGHT CHANGE.

The housekeeper of today is a very different person from what she was a few years ago. The war has forced her to change her ideas of many things and has also made her co-operate in war work. She learned to do team work in sewing or rolling bandages; she learned that her family could eat and be satisfied with food which, in the days of peace, it would not even consider. She is open minded, and, therefore, ready to have Home-making, Drying, Canning, or any other topic discussed.

Miss Dora Sonndenday, of the Extension Division of the College of Agriculture, will talk at the Farmers Community Meeting on Homemaking. All the housekeepers should be certain to hear what she has to say.

HEALTH IS WEALTH.

The young man who was robust was able to fight for Uncle Sam; the man who was not physically fit was turned down. Also business does not turn the man down who is not normal in health, still he does not have a full chance to make good in life. John D. Lockefeller offered a million dollars for a first class stomach because he realized the value of health in hard cash.

Dr. I. N. Wittenberg will tell his audiences something about "Health is Wealth" during the Farmers Community Meeting. Men, women and children are all vitally interested in Health and are sure to be interested in this talk.

HE KNOWS THE FARMER.

The management of the Farmers Community Meeting is delighted to be able to announce that Dr. Fred Mutchler, late head of the Extension Division of the College of Agriculture, will deliver an evening talk on "Getting Together." For years Dr. Mutchler has known the farmers in a most intimate way. He is himself a farmer of ability. No question needs discussion more than that of co-operation among the men who till the soil so the doctor is sure to have a large audience out to hear him, and the audience is sure to be thoroughly satisfied.

WILSON TRYING TO REDUCE PRICES

President Wilson will take steps to effect immediately reduction of the price of foodstuffs. Congress will receive a message from him requesting enactment of whatever legislation may be necessary to lower prices. The Department of Justice has been ordered to make war immediately on all hoarders of supplies and all profiteers. Julius H. Barnes has decided to retain the guarantee price of $2.26 a bushel for wheat in order to prevent the rise of price. Barnes promised a stabilization of flour prices and hopes to be able to supply all that is needed at $10 a barrel.

STOWERS WINS IN 13th.

Frank W. Stowers, candidate for Democratic nomination for State Senator, carried the Thirteenth senatorial district, composed of Pike, Floyd and Knott counties, by 1,000 majority.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Black, of South Pekin, Ill., who have been visiting in Louisa, are spending this week in Wayne, the guests of relatives.

HE KNOWS SCHOOLS.

Since Uncle Sam has been at war he has made everyone realize that this century demands an education for every man, woman and child. Schools will be certain to grow better and people are sure to think more about the school to which their children go.

The Farmers Community Meetings at Louisa is going to give parents an opportunity to think clearly about "Better Schools" because J. Virgil Chapman, Superintendent of Public Instruction, will be one of the speakers. He knows the country schools because he has taught them and then supervised them in many portions of the State.

PEOPLE ARE WONDERING.

Religion and Life appear to have been pulled a bit closer since America has been at war. Then, too, with all the many changes which have come to the country, people are wondering just how religion and life are to adjust themselves again to the new conditions. Of course, religion is solid, but it is changing with the times and the public is eager to hear men give their ideas of what will probably take place. Dr. T. H. Gronert has long been known in Kentucky as a forceful speaker who has something to say and knows how to say it. The Farmers Community Meeting at Louisa is indeed fortunate to have him on the program.

CUT LIVING COSTS.

There was a time when the garden was considered a woman's job. There was a time when any orchard would grow and bear fruit in spite of neglect. That time has gone and with it low cost of living. Today a garden or an orchard are well sized jobs. Both jobs are well worth doing well because a good garden and a fruitful orchard will reduce the high cost of living very greatly and provide a bountiful table. C. W. Mathews understands gardens and orchards as few other men in the state do and he has a message for the people.

MAKE MICROBES WORK.

The man who fights hog cholera, the physician who pits his skill against typhoid fever, and the woman who keeps her house clean, are one and all fighting microbes. Besides these dangerous microbes there are others which help to make soil fertile and do other good work to make the old world better.

Dr. D. J. Healy, of the Experiment Station, has been studying and handling good and bad microbes for years. He has been on the trail of the microbe which causes hog cholera for three years. He hasn't got him yet, but he is still on his trail. Come to hear Dr. Healy.

J. E. CHILDERS IS NEW CIRCUIT JUDGE

Joel E. Childers, Pikeville, Democrat, is the new Circuit Judge of the Thirty-fifth judicial district. He was appointed by Gov. Black to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late Judge J. F. Butler.

Judge Childers will be the Democratic candidate in the November election. He will be opposed by J. J. Moore, Pikeville, law partner of Judge Butler, or Roscoe Vanover, of the same city, who ran against Judge Flen D. Sampson, for the Republican nomination for Appellate Judge in the Seventh district.

C. E. Hensley, traveling salesman returned Wednesday from Greenup where he had been calling on the trade. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hensley. They made the trip in their automobile.

O'NEAL-HIGHBARGER.

The following account of the marriage of two popular young people of Louisa and Busseyville is taken from the Catlettsburg department of the Ashland Independent and is of interest to their many friends. Lieut. Highbarger and bride came to Louisa to spend a few days with relatives.

Miss Annie O'Neal, a professional nurse and a handsome and popular young lady, was married at four o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of her uncle, Hon. and Mrs. W. D. O'Neal, on Oakland avenue, to Lieut. Howard R. Highbarger, late of the American army, but now a civil engineer located at Caples, W. Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Bostwick, former pastor of the Methodist church at Louisa. The bride was charming in all white, while the handsome groom was in officer's uniform. There were only members of the O'Neal family present at this quiet and pretty wedding. The happy couple both stand very high in the regard of all who know them. They will visit relatives at Louisa for a time after which they will locate at Caples where the groom holds a responsible position. Their many friends will hope for them much happiness.

FINDS FOSSILS OF SEA MONSTERS IN FLOYD COUNTY SHALE FIELDS

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 5.—The Kendrick shale on headwaters of Cow creek, Floyd Co., recently investigated and reported on by Willard R. Jilison, State Geologist, brings to light remains of some hitherto unknown pioneers of the Kentucky mountains, snail-like fossils, who traveled through many vicissitudes from the Gulf of Mexico, the upper reaches of which at that time extended to somewhere in the vicinity of Paducah.

They underwent as many hardships in the prehistoric mud of Eastern Kentucky, in hardened deposits of which their fossilized remains have been preserved, as did the human pioneers of Kentucky in the mountain wilderness, which in the giant upheaval of an ancient day lifted these strange geological specimens from the ocean's level.

Such peculiar family names, and all rare to geologists, are found among those resting in the Kendrick shale, as Spirifer Rockymontanus, Pleurotomaria and Modiolona Subelliptica. They are invertebrates. "The wonder that there is found any marine invertebrate life at all in this semi-isolated pocket is further increased by a realization of the fact that these hardy pioneering fauna were continually subject to and repeatedly suffered from total extinction when only partially established in their new environment.

Marine fossils are seldom found in the coal measures and this peculiar shale of limited area will be further investigated with reference to its relation to the coal fields of Kentucky. The fossils are new and unmatched inside or out of Kentucky.

LOBACO COMPANY WILL OPERATE AN ELECTRIC PLANT

Electricity for Commercial Purposes. Provided for in Immanse New Plant: to be Erected by this $150,000 Corporation. Also, Ice Plant, Soft Drinks, Baking Products

The Lobaco Company has bought an electric plant large enough not only to run its own machinery, but to supply current for lights and power to all firms or individuals in Louisa who may want it.

An ice plant with a capacity of forty tons per day will be installed during the fall and winter.

The bakery will be ready for operation early in October. The most complete equipment possible to obtain has been purchased. In addition to bread and pies, there will be a large production of cakes. A concrete floor has been laid in the bakery building and men are now at work on the reconstruction of the building. The brick partition walls have been erected this week.

The capital stock will be $150,000. This will include the coca-oola and soft drink establishment. The real estate between that building and railroad street has been contracted for, and a switch will be run into the ice plant. Steps have been taken to secure an electric lighting franchise from the city.

Later on, when arrangements shall have been made with farmers for an ample milk supply, the manufacture of ice cream will be added to the business of this firm.

Everybody will be glad to know that the electric light plant is to be established. Louisa needs electricity and the time is ripe for it.

Mr. B. E. Adams is very busy just now closing contracts and arranging for the construction and installation of all this large plant. He is hustling everything to the limit. We expect to be eating the famous Lobaco bread before the 15th of October.

MORE GOOD WELLS IN LOCAL FIELD

The well on Dr. C. B. Walters farm on upper Blaine was shot a few days ago and is reported to be good for five barrels. This is two miles or more from the wells of the Union Oil & Gas company's wells and is an important indicator as to the extent of the field. It is expected that a pipe line to that field will be laid as soon as the pipe can be delivered.

The New Domain's well on Carl Bussey's land was shot last week and is reported to be better than the average well in the Busseyville field.

The Big Blaine is drilling well No. 13 on W. M. Savage.

BLACK WINS THE GOVERNOR'S RACE

In the State primary election last Saturday Governor James D. Black, of Barbourville, won the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky by a majority of about 18,000.

The lightest vote ever recorded in any important primary is shown by the result and many calculations were upset thereby.

The only two counties in Eastern Kentucky carried by Judge Carroll were Lawrence and Mason.

The winners for the other offices are given in the paper published at the head of the first column on page 4.

Hensley and several years of his boyhood were spent in Louisa.

NOT THE ONLY ONE

There Are Other Louisa People Similarly Situated.

Can there be any stronger proof offered than the evidence of Louisa residents? After you have read the following, quietly answer the question.

K. F. Vinson, Water St., Louisa, says: "Whenever I have had a spell of kidney troubles or rheumatic twinges I have bought a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Louisa Drug Co's store."

They have removed the pains from my back and took the rheumatic twinges from my limbs. My back has sometimes been lame when I have done too much lifting and I have been subject to rheumatic twinges after taking cold. The trouble has generally been in my limbs, from my hips down. My kidneys have acted too frequently, bothering me at night by causing me to get up too often. All of these symptoms have disappeared after I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and I have felt like a different person, being strong and active."

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

After all, so much in this world depends upon the way you look at things. It may seem a little thing, this looking at life from a cheerful or dismal point of view, but it is in reality a very big thing. Put on a pair of blue spectacles and everything looks blue; green, and everything is green. And so it is with the eyes of our mind. If we take a cheerful view of things, life will be far brighter. We shall not see the faults in people, but their virtues. If we look for pleasant things we shall find them or at least, we shall think we shall find them, which is much the same. We are apt to find what we look for; therefore, let us look for light and happiness. It is all habit. And it is just as easy to cultivate a cheerful habit as a gloomy one. And when once a habit takes a strong hold of us we all know how hard it is to shake it off. Let us then cultivate a habit of cheerfulness in all circumstances of life, and a habit of not finding fault. It is not the fault finders who are going to do the great deeds and make the world richer because they have lived. No; these fault finders who have no time for anything but fault finding. It is the cheerful people who help the world along, who make its great inventions and laws, who build its monuments, write its poems and novels, and who go down to the grave lamented with honor.

Finish every day and be done with it. For manners and for wise living it is a vice to remember. You have done what you could; some blunders and absurdities no doubt crept in; forget them as soon as you can. Tomorrow is a new day; you shall begin it well and serenely and with too high a spirit to be cumbered with your old nonsense. This day for all that is good and fair. It is too dear with all its hopes and invitations to waste a moment on the rotten yesterdays.

BE A MAN.

Foolish spending is the father of poverty. Do not be ashamed of hard work. Work for the best salaries or wages you can get, but work for half price rather than be idle. Be your own master, and do not let society or fashion swallow up your individuality—hat, coat and boots. Do not eat up or wear up all you earn. Compel your selfish body to spare something for profits saved. Be stingy to your own appetite, but merciful to other's necessities. Help others and ask for no help for yourself. See that you are proud. Let your pride be of the right kind. Be too proud to be lazy; too proud to give up without conquering every difficulty; too proud to wear a coat you cannot afford to buy; too proud to be in company that you cannot keep up with; too proud to lie, or steal, or cheat; too proud to be stingy.

A model husband may be a day laborer who returns to his home at night with a hard earned dollar clasped in his honest hand, and adds it to the family fund to be used to provide necessary comforts for his wife whatever he may earn by trade or profession. When business matters perplex he does not go home with a woeful tale of his hardships and turn the bright side of his character to his associates, but he comes into his home with a cheerful face that inspires his wife with new courage after a day of perplexing duties which women alone have to meet, and in their monotony become distasteful to the most patient of them.

A want of proper domestic economy has ruined the peace of many a family. There are women who could carry off their husbands' stores on their backs and not half try. There are men who fancy when they marry that they are saving something far more valuable than Club and find later that they have on hand nothing more than a combined album, Goddard's Lady's Book and medicine chest. There are two sides to the picture of home; a man who has a good wife has no right to complain though the whole world be against him, for he's in the majority.

The model housekeeper of today who is cultured and refined, and yet enjoys domestic life, who knows how to care for the money brought into the home by her husband, how to use it wisely and well for the comfort of her family, certainly understands domestic economy and should be an object lesson held up for study in the town in which she lived.

A model husband does not hang up his fiddle at the door, to be taken up as he goes out to entertain outsiders, and come into his home as devoid of any suggestion of music as the face of a monk.

He who can create his own happiness in the sphere in which he finds himself, has within him one of the real elements of success in business and success in winning happiness.

The heat of itself is sufficient burden without adding to it irritation over trifles and outbursts of temper because of petty annoyances. Forget it.

When you converse with a gossip you talk in a graphophone; the first person who turns the crank gets the whole story.

All love is sweet, given or returned. They who inspire it most are fortunate, but they who feel it most are happier still.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For State Senate.
We are authorized to announce Hon. BRIG H. HARRIS, of Boyd county, as a candidate for the State Senate from the district composed of Boyd, Lawrence, Johnson and Martin counties, subject to the action of the Republican party.

Farmers are urged to attend the tent meetings at Louisa Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week.

Kentuckians are reported to be very fond of voting. The surprisingly small vote of last Saturday would seem to indicate that they are losing their taste for this form of amusement.

The Democrats of the Eighth district of Kentucky went to sleep last Saturday and permitted King Swope to defeat Judge Charles Hardin for Congress. This is only the second time in the history of the State that the 8th has elected a Republican congressman. Swope is a young man of very ability. It is said, who is just entering upon the practice of law.

Government ownership of railroads would mean that no more taxes would be paid to states, counties, cities or nation by these great properties. Like everything else that happens, the masses of the people would be called upon to make up the loss. They are the goats on every proposition that increases costs. When railroads raise rates the people pay the increase. When the railroads lose money, as they are now doing, the people must make up the difference.

The victory of Gov. Black last Saturday mused up the record of Tom Cromwell, the Kentucky political correspondent for the Cincinnati Enquirer, whose forecasts for several years have been remarkably accurate. This is the first time he has missed the result. He has a system of making a postal card canvass that heretofore has doped it correctly in advance. Gamblers were betting even money on the result of the Governor's race the night before the primary.

In the campaign just closed the NEWS accepted all the political advertising offered by the various candidates at our regular rates. Not a word was said editorially either for or against any candidate, as it has long been the rule of this paper to take no part in a primary, unless some very unusual reason for doing so should exist. We did not discover any such reason in the recent campaign.

The successful ticket appears at the head of this column and the NEWS is for it strong.

The railroad unions have issued a statement demanding that capital retire from all railroads and that they be operated by the employees and the government and "the public."

A more dangerous and impractical proposition was never before seriously proposed in the United States. It sounds like Russia's present misgovernment.

The highest type of business genius is required to successfully manage railroads so that the public may have reasonable rates for freight and travel and service that will meet the needs of the country. Such talent will not be available under the plan proposed by the short-sighted fellows who have made it.

Government ownership of a co-education means that the country's largest and most important artery of industry will become a political machine subject to the powers and abuses of political plans. This already has been demonstrated under conditions forced by the war. It is easy to see where it is leading to. "The public" can not operate the roads. The trillions can not do it. The prosperity of the country depends upon orderly business-like and efficient management of its railroads. The men employed in that work are injuring themselves as well as their country when they advocate a plan that must result in wreck and ruin. Is there no leader amongst them wise enough and sufficiently courageous to lead them back to a safe and conservative position? They need another leader like Arthur, who took care of their rights without using force and crippling the country.

The Lobaco Company

Louisa, Kentucky

FARM DEPARTMENT

By G. C. BAKER, County Agent.

IT IS ONE-SIDED.

The farmer has been taught and urged to produce more food. His education, according to Prof. John T. Coulter, has been "one-sided"; it is only covered one-third of the activities of the modern farmer. It has taught him to produce, but has not taught him anything about either selling or about spending the money received. It is an age of commercial agriculture it is as necessary to buy well and to sell well as to produce well. Any manufacturer will tell you that. When the people of the United States first realized that it was necessary to begin a systematic study of agriculture they began with a study of the production of all farm produce. At that time the chief business of the farmer was to produce things.

The time is at hand when the farmer must more and more study how and when to market what he has produced. The day is at hand when co-operation will secure a profit when the go-it-alone plan will not get a living price.

AGENT IS "HANDY MAN."

The county agent has read with a great deal of interest a recent editorial in Hoard's Dairyman headed "The County Agent." The editorial is too long to be reproduced here in full, but a few extracts are given below to show the attitude of a great dairy paper toward the county agent and his work: "In this work, as in the work of farming or in any other business or profession, there will always be failures, but we do not judge the whole industry or the profession from a few failures alone. We judge the work more by its actual accomplishments in many sections and as to whether, as a whole, it has given satisfactory service. On this basis the county agent movement has succeeded."

"The county agent is becoming more and more the hub of the agricultural wheel, about which revolve the various personal and joint farm activities of the county. He is not so much an adviser as he is the "handy man" of the community, through whom and by whom farmers are brought together to their mutual advantage."

SINGER TO BRING GRAND-CHILDREN FROM GERMANY

New York.—Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, famous opera singer, wept as she boarded the Holland-American liner Rotterdam. She told reporters that her trip to Germany is being made to bring back the two little children of her son, August, who was killed when a German submarine struck a mine in the Mediterranean. He was an officer in the German navy when the war broke out.

The diva's three other sons served in the United States forces in the late war. She wore a bar with four service stars, one of which was for August.

She declared her intention of bringing the small boy and girl to this country and making good Americans of them.

PIE SOCIAL.

There will be a pie social and fishing pond at the Dry Ridge school house Saturday night, August 9, for the benefit of the school. Everybody come; your help will be appreciated. X.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES
A SLUGGISH LIVER

CRASHES INTO SOUR BILE. MAKING YOU SICK AND YOU LOSE A DAY'S WORK.

Calomel salivates! Its mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes in contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and eat your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a distinctive paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

They Win You On Quality!

Your enjoyment of Camels will be very great because their refreshing flavor and fragrance and mellowness is so enticingly different. You never tasted such a cigarette! Bite is eliminated and there is a cheerful absence of any unpleasant cigarette after-taste or any unpleasant cigarette odor!

Camels are made of an expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos and are smooth and mild, but have that desirable full-body and certainly hand out satisfaction in generous measure. You will prefer this Camel blend to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

Give Camels the stiffest tryout, then compare them with any cigarette in the world at any price for quality, flavor, satisfaction. No matter how liberally you smoke Camels they will not tire your taste!

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while filling, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture.

I sent and bought Theodor's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theodor's Black-Draught."

gassed and had to be taken to the rear. Sergeant Maynard has been confined to his room at the home of his sister in Williamson with typhoid fever since returning from France.

Road Improvement.

The action of the court in getting tractors to move the road machines is highly commendable. The work done in this way is cheaper and makes the roads exceptionally good. Where the rocks are not too numerous, the machines will complete at least five miles per day and do it just right. Another tractor will be in use in Butler district soon and probably still another later. Three will keep the roads up to date. A shortage of teams and men lead the court to try the experiment and now that the machines have proven their worth, they will be used extensively in the future.—News.

Big Case Becomes Sensation.

There were many people here Tuesday attracted by a case which proves all too true the old adage of "making a mountain out of a mole hill." Emmett Fanning rented some farm land from David Shepherd at "Seed Trick," on East Fork in Lawrence county and claimed right to the fender which he sold to Dr. J. C. Hall. Shepherd claimed to have had the refusal of the fender. There were only about 11 shocks at 25 cents a shock. Suit was filed by Shepherd vs. Dr. J. C. Hall and Emmett Fanning. This was tried once before in Louisa and on retrial was brought to Boyd county and tried in Squire Blair's court and was repeated to the quarterly court whence it is being tried today. This involves about 14 witnesses. Several hundred dollars have already been spent by the litigants. A judgment was rendered in favor of Hall and Fanning. This is the third time judgment has been rendered favoring the defendants, and each time Shepherd has appealed the case. The costs in the case amount to about $130.00.

London.—By merely hanging the picture of a dog, the Scottish National galleries may acquire a very substantial portion of a fortune estimated at $350,000.

Callum, the dog, belonged to James Cowan Smith of Bothamsall hall, near Retford, who died recently. Mr. Smith was very fond of dogs and kept a number of them. Mr. Smith had a picture of "Callum With a Dead Rat" painted in oils. Under Mr. Smith's will the trustees of the Scottish National galleries will receive part of his estate if they will agree to hang this picture "in a conspicuous place" in one of the galleries under their control.

To a servant Mr. Smith bequeathed his dogs with an allowance of $125 a week for the keep of each of them and an annuity of $350.
